

CONTACT:

Stephanie Carroll
Manager of Business Development & Community Relations
City of Auburn Hills
(248) 364-6802
scarroll@auburnhills.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MURDER MYSTERY DINNER ANNOUNCED FOR OCTOBER 17, 2015

Don't Miss Your Chance to Attend a Wedding You Won't Forget

Auburn Hills, MI (September 8, 2015) – You are cordially invited to attend a wedding on October 17th beginning at 5:00 p.m. at the Auburn Hills Community Center. Marriage, Murder and the Mob will feature an interactive Murder Mystery Dinner. Expect a few surprises and activities to add to the fun; plus, solving the mystery comes with a prize. Guests are in for an evening they won't forget.

"This is a great opportunity for Auburn Hills and Avondale High School Theatre group to give the community a unique entertainment experience," stated Mayor Kevin McDaniel. "It's an evening filled with fun and intrigue that supports local programs and helps the high school theatre students with some travel expenses for an upcoming trip to Scotland."

The entertainment for the evening will be presented by the students of the Avondale Theatre Company, along with their parent support group, The Drama Boosters. The cost for the event is $30.00. Dinner from Alfoccino's includes: Chicken picatta, penne pasta with palomino Sauce or marinara sauce, salad, garlic bread and for dessert cheesecake trio bites.

Avondale students are already involved in many ways in the Auburn Hills community. Ed Guay, Director of the group since 1987, added "This is such a great chance to combine the talents and energies of the students of the Avondale Theatre Company with the community activities of Auburn Hills. Hopefully this will be the start of a prolonged and strong relationship for both."

Order tickets in person at the Auburn Hills Community Center or online at www.auburnhills.org. Tickets must be purchased by October 10, 2015, and no tickets will be sold at the door.

About Auburn Hills

The City of Auburn Hills is a distinguished leader in southeast Michigan. Home to 21,000 residents, as well as a workday population of approximately 100,000, Auburn Hills continues to be a thriving global business address. It is home to over 80 international corporations and hosts the World and North American headquarters for numerous outstanding businesses such as Fiat Chrysler Automobiles, Continental Automotive Systems, Faurecia, and BorgWarner. Auburn Hills' residents enjoy the amenities of city and suburban living with parks, a revitalized downtown district and a welcoming city complex with a library and community center. Additionally, the city has five colleges and universities, the award winning Palace of Auburn Hills sports and entertainment complex and Great Lakes Crossing Outlets, one of the state's largest destination shopping centers, providing a variety of cultural, social and educational opportunities to residents, workers and visitors. Learn more at www.auburnhills.org.

About Avondale Theatre Company

The Avondale Theatre Company is the extra-curricular extension of the Avondale High School theatre classes and involves over 150 students every year in after-school productions and events. The ATC is a student-focused, student-run, student-empowered program that gives teenagers from across the wide continuum of the Avondale community opportunities to “find their voice” in both onstage and backstage experiences. Productions of the ATC are completely student-designed and student-executed with limited adult mentorship. The Company mounts at least three mainstage productions every season including a full musical, a non-musical, and touring one-act production for festival competition. In addition, the ATC also creates a series of “Studio Productions” – student direct one-act plays staged in the intimate setting of Avondale High School’s Black Box Theatre, and often stages evenings of Improvisational Theatre and Haunted Houses.

###